

CENTER FOR VETERINARY HEALTH SCIENCES Friday Bit for Alumni and Friends

READ. LOVE. REPEAT »

Ever been curious about the caring reach of CVHS in the global community? Here's an alumna committed to mission through the veterinary profession. Mary Ballenger, DVM ('81) along with her husband Richard, facilitate ministry groups, education and mentor opportunities through Christian Veterinary Mission. Recently, Dr. Ballenger worked with five Mongolian veterinarians as they received their Master's Degree in collaboration with the OSU Distance Training Program. Dean emeritus, Michael Lorenz ('69) participated in teaching a full course on Small Animal Medical Diagnosis. As these veterinarians were publicly acknowledged for their achievements they were honored with branded gifts from CVHS.

GET WILD »

It's all about wildness at Open House, Saturday, April 7, 9- 4 pm on the veterinary campus. Amazing demonstrations, outdoor events and activities raise awareness to the public for CVHS services. A silent auction increases funding for the Avian, Exotic & Zoo Medicine clinical care service at the Veterinary Medical Hospital where we treat over 500 wildlife cases annually. Check it out here To partner with the AEZ service by providing an in-kind auction item for bid, contact Sharon now at 405-744-5630.

4th YEARS, WHO'S COMING TO DINNER? »

Class of 2018, if you haven't RSVP'd to the Proud & Immortal 4YR Dinner on March 27, 5:30 pm at the lovely ConocoPhillips Alumni Center, please RSVP to Katie NOW! Veterinary industry partners are bringing FREE SWAG for you to this event. You'll meet the team of alumni partners needed for future success. Special presentations will be made to students. Be there!

It's F R I D A Y. Did someone say treat yourself? Oh wait, that was me.

Happy Saint Patricks Day
