FRIDAY BIT

for Alumni & Friends - June 28

The Brand You Trust

Oklahoma State University has undertaken a strategic effort to elevate the brand and position of all its entities for future growth. The new brand (pictured) has been adopted to best position the university for the future - one logo for all.

You may continue to receive some correspondence with former approved branding while we cycle out our past inventories for budget efficiency.

The official launch of the new brand update is July 1. Pistols firing!

W A N T E D: Large & Small Animal Caseload

Explore the newest clinical care playbook that's breaking the barriers of tradition and inspiring innovation at CVHS.

Minimally invasive procedures are on the rise bringing diagnostic treatment options. Alternatives to traditional techniques decrease hospital stays and increase procedure success, a winning combo for the patient, owner and veterinarian. Learn more.
