House Officer Seminar

Dr. Camilla Jamieson will present "Endocrine Diseases of the Horse" on Thursday, July 28, at 8 a.m. in Room 104 at the Veterinary Medical Hospital. Jamieson is an equine internal medicine resident mentored by Drs. Todd Holbrook and Dianne McFarlane.

Special Publication

Cichocki BN, Dugat DR, Snider TA. Traumatic lung injury attributed to tornadic activity-induced barometric pressure changes in two dogs. JAVMA 2016; 248 (11): 1274-1279.

While this publication may seem like any other, the circumstances surrounding it are not. Drs. Brandy Cichocki, Danielle Dugat and Timothy Snider compiled information they learned following a local tornado to hopefully help other veterinarians diagnose injuries in the future (read more).

Nominations Open for SWVS Awards

The Southwest Veterinary Symposium is accepting nominations until Friday, July 29, for two very prestigious awards. Take a moment to nominate a deserving veterinarian for the LTC Daniel Holland, DVM Memorial Scholarship and the Visionary of the Year Award sponsored by Merial. Nominations may be submitted online at http://www.swvs.org/awards_SWVS.cfm.

Alumnus Helps Eagles

In addition to his full-time veterinary practice, Dr. Paul Welch ('81) volunteers for the Grey Snow Eagle House in Perkins, Okla. He sees about 500 wildlife cases a year including bald and golden eagles cared for by the Iowa Tribe (read more).

('19), Samantha Hancock ('19), Dr. Chris Ross, Alexis Sirois ('19), and Dr. Ashish Ranjan.

The veterinary students who participated in this year's Summer Research Scholars Program will present their research projects today, July 25, in the Old Phys Lab from 9 a.m. to 12 p.m. Please plan to stop by to visit with them and hear what they have discovered.
