

Net Vet Weekly - October 19, 2020

COVID-19 News

The Veterinary Medical Hospital is now accepting appointments for non-emergency cases. Curbside admission and discharge protocols, social distancing and proper PPE remain in place.

Online CE is available. For a list of all courses available, the cost, and where to register visit Online Professional Development.

All COVID-19 related information can be viewed in detail on the College of Veterinary Medicine website at COVID-19 Updates.

Congratulations to the 2020 October Employees of the Month!

- Emily Looper, lab technician at OADDL, is a joy to work with. Quick with a complement and greeting, she makes herself available to answer questions from staff and We're Growing!

The Department of Veterinary Clinical Sciences seeks a second enthusiastic emergency small animal clinician. Interested parties can read more at Join Our Team in Emergency and Critical Care.

We are also adding a second house officer in the Zoological Medicine Service. We have an open zoological medicine internship position through July 2021. Interested parties can read more at Zoological Medicine Intern.

The hospital seeks two small animal emergency and critical care specialists. These positions are new to the college and offer great opportunities for someone who is passionate about teaching and providing the highest standard of care. Read more at Two Small Animal Emergency and Critical Care Specialists.

CVM and Einstein Partner

The CVM is excited to announce a partnership with Albert Einstein College of Medicine. The collaboration opens doors to further our research and discovery to benefit both animals and people. Read the full story and watch a short video at CVM and Einstein Partner.

clients. Emily is great with the students and works hard to make sure their time in Parasitology is educational and interesting. She goes above and beyond, always smiling, enthusiastic and helpful.

- Vanessa Santos, graduate student in McElroy Hall, joined her lab just before COVID-19 hit hard. She takes initiative completing tasks without being asked and keeps the lab running smoothly. She goes the extra step remembering birthdays and important dates and looks for ways to make members feel important, celebrated and heard. She makes the CVM a better place to be especially during these uncertain times.
- Dennis Wilbourn, certified veterinary technician and ranch manager at the CVM Ranch, works with students and faculty safely handling mares and stallions during various procedures. Dennis is always helpful and very accommodating. He helps faculty teach veterinary students various aspects of bovine theriogenology and the students love him. How efficiently he oversees the ranch has earned Dennis great respect.

OADDL Completes Mission of Human Sample Testing

OADDL recently completed testing human samples for COVID-19. Dr. Jerry Saliki talks about the changes OADDL had to make, the challenges they faced and more. Read the full story and watch a short video at OADDL Completes Mission of Testing Human COVID-19 Samples.

House Officer Seminar

Liz Soler, DVM, will present "Infected Ulcerative Keratitis in the Equine: Medical and Surgical Management" on Thursday, Oct. 22, at 8 a.m. in Room 002C at the Veterinary Medical Hospital. Dr. Soler is an ophthalmology resident mentored by Drs. Katelyn Fentiman and Emily McCool. The recorded lecture will be available on Moodle in the course VBSC 6710.

CVM Presents in India

Drs. Daniel Burba and Hugh Duddy will both participate in a Zoom CE opportunity at Tamil Nadu Veterinary and Animal Sciences University on Oct. 22, 2020.

Dr. Burba, McCasland Professor of Biomedical Laser Surgery and head of Veterinary Clinical Sciences, will present "Equine Wound Management." Dr. Duddy, resident in equine surgery, will present "Lameness in Horses."

Fall Conference

With the ongoing pandemic, Fall Conference will be virtual. Participate from the comfort of your home or office Wednesday - Friday, Nov. 4 - 6, 2020. Register now at Fall Conference 2020. Current OSU veterinary students, staff and faculty do not need to register as a separate link will be sent to you later.

OSTATETV

*OSU College of Veterinary Medicine
308 McElroy Hall
Stillwater, OK 74078*

This email was sent by the OSU College of Veterinary Medicine through a partnership with the OSU Alumni Association. To change your Net Vet Weekly subscription, please email Derinda Blakeney.