Southwest Veterinary Symposium News

Several folks represented the College at SWVS. Dean Risco, Sharon Worrell and Ashley Hesser were at our booth in the Exhibit Hall. Thank you to all who stopped by and congratulations to this year's door prize winners:

- Dr. Kaitlin Agel ('16)
- Dr. Amber Baber ('15)
- Dr. Heather Coleman ('20)
- Dr. Brandon Dutton ('08)
- Dr. Megan Hughes ('08)
- Dr. Josh Morris ('19)

Dr. Mike Schoonover serves on the SWVS Board of Managers and the following faculty presented the topics listed:

Dr. Nicola Di Girolamo - "Practical Approach to Surgery in Reptiles," "Reproductive Diseases of Female Chelonians" and "Diagnosis and Removal of Urinary Stones in Chelonians."

Dr. Meredyth Jones - "Being Indispensable to Your Clients," "Medical Error and Decision Bias in Food Animal Practice," "Ancillary Diagnostic Techniques" and "Updates on Food Animal Lameness."

Dr. Malayer Kicks Off Research on Tap

Research on Tap is a monthly series hosted by Dr. Kenneth Sewell, vice president of research at OSU. Dr. Jerry Malayer, senior associate dean for research and graduate education, kicked off the 2021 series as he discussed a variety of ways that researchers within our college are addressing aspects of SARS-CoV-2 and COVID-19 as well as his work with other viruses.

Listen to this interesting and informative podcast at How OSU Veterinary Researchers are Saving the World.

Rancher's Lunchtime Series

The Rancher's Thursday Lunchtime Series is back. Join OSU's Beef Cattle Extension Team, experienced ranchers and scientists to learn and share beef cattle production, management and marketing tips.

Thursday, Oct. 7, at 12 p.m. Derrell Peel will present "Cattle Outlook: Should I Cull Deeper This Fall?" and Dave Lalman will present "Managing Winter Feeding."
OSU Veterinarians Save Juno Brown

This year got off to a rocky start for Juno Brown, a 5 1/2 year old golden retriever from Oklahoma City. In January, Dr. Danielle Dugat performed emergency surgery on Juno for a kidney stone, the first of four surgeries she would have before the end of May.

Read the full story and meet Juno in a short video at Juno Brown: 4 Surgeries Later.

INTERACT Research Symposium

The inaugural INTERACT Research Symposium will be held on Tuesday, Oct. 12, beginning at 8 a.m. Nobel Laureate, Dr. Bruce Beutler will present the keynote address at 11 a.m. All presentations will be live streamed at INTERACT Research Symposium.

Companion Animal Program

Clinics can help advance research funds at the college. The CVM offers a Companion Animal Program where contributions acknowledge the loss of client animals in support of research to improve the quality of animal and public health.

This opportunity is an amazing practice builder. To engage with the program, contact Sharon Worrell, alumni affairs and event specialist, at 405-744-5630 or sworrel@okstate.edu.

Fall Conference Registration Opens

Fall Conference registration is now open. Attendees have two attendance options - in person at Wes Watkins Center or virtual via Zoom.

Earn up to 14 hours of CE for the two-day conference featuring four tracks: companion animal, food animal, equine and general.

For more information and to register, visit Fall Conference Website. If you have any questions, please contact Christine Nichols at 405-744-7672 or christine.nichols@okstate.edu.
This email was sent by the OSU College of Veterinary Medicine through a partnership with the OSU Alumni Association. To change your Net Vet Weekly subscription, please email Derinda Blakeney.