

Net Vet Weekly - March 16, 2020

Davis Teaches Workshops Abroad

Michael Davis, DVM, PhD, DACVIM, DACVSMR, professor and Oxley Chair in Equine Sports Medicine in the Department of Physiological Sciences, and director of the Comparative Exercise Physiology Laboratory, recently returned from teaching two 2-day workshops in Europe.

Dr. Davis presented lectures and hands-on laboratories on muscle diseases in equine athletes in Rhenen, Netherlands, and Lichfield, United Kingdom.

Topics included:

- Clinical physiology of muscle as a basis for diagnosing and treating poor performance
- Muscle diseases that cause poor performance
- Mechanisms of fatigue
- Specific diagnostic tests for poor performance
- Tailoring conditioning programs for different athletic disciplines in horses.

AAVMC Advocacy Day

Led by Dr. Carlos Risco, dean, a small delegation from the College of Veterinary Medicine recently traveled to Washington, D.C., to participate in the Association of American Veterinary Medical College's Advocacy Day.

Pictured below are (left to right): Drs. Jerry Malayer and Carlos Risco, Rep. Frank Lucas, Hannah Felder, class of 2021, and Dr. Tim Snider (OSU CVM '96). For the full story including the legislation we advocated for, visit CVM Participates in AAVMC Advocacy Day.

Clary Presents at OU

Erik Clary, DVM, PhD, DACVS, associate professor of small animal surgery and bioethics in the Department of Veterinary Clinical Sciences, recently presented a seminar, "Channeling Pavlov in the

Students Participate in Poultry Wet Lab

Thirty veterinary students recently attended a necropsy wet lab at OADDL discussing poultry anatomy and disease. Dr. Ken Powell (OSU CVM '86), a veterinarian for Aviagen, demonstrated the necropsy.

Students gained hands-on experience identifying anatomical landmarks and abnormalities associated with the poultry industry and with poultry necropsy.

ACVP, PAMS and ZEW student chapters partnered with Zoetis student representatives to organize the event.

Getting to Know You

Era of Three R's Research: Development and Research Applications of a Minimally-Invasive Technique for Establishing Chronic Esophageal Access in the Dog" at the University of Oklahoma College of Medicine in Oklahoma City.

Dr. Clary spoke at the invitation of Dr. Barish Edil, chair of the Department of Surgery. The event was sponsored by Dr. Edil's department and the OU Center for Accelerating Research Excellence in Surgery.

House Officer Seminar

Jessica Rutledge, BVetMed, MRCVS, will present "Ammonia in Horses: What a Headache" on Thursday, March 19, at 8 a.m. in Room 002C at the Veterinary Medical Hospital.

Dr. Rutledge is the equine internal medicine resident mentored by Dr. Jillian Paegelow.

Grand Rounds

John Howell will present "Financial Advising" during Grand Rounds on Friday, March 20, from 8 a.m. to 9 a.m. in Room 002C at the Veterinary Medical Hospital.

Howell is an investment advisor representative with New York Life Insurance working at Eagle Strategies, LLC, in Stillwater, Oklahoma.

Interdisciplinary Toxicology Symposium Postponed

The Interdisciplinary Toxicology Symposium scheduled for Monday,

Marie Hughes is an administrative support specialist in the Department of Veterinary Clinical Sciences. Originally from Perry, Oklahoma, she earned a BS degree in elementary education from Oklahoma State University.

Marie grew up on a farm and had a small farm until about a year ago. She has four children and a two-year-old granddaughter and spends the majority of her spare time going to all of their activities.

Favorite Quote: "Character is who you are when no one is watching."

March 30, has been postponed until later this year.

Your Opinion Matters

Just a reminder to please complete the Vet Cetera readership survey if you have not already done so. You can take this short survey at Readership Survey.

OSTATETV

*OSU College of Veterinary Medicine
308 McElroy Hall
Stillwater, OK 74078*

This email was sent by the OSU College of Veterinary Medicine through a partnership with the OSU Alumni Association. To change your Net Vet Weekly subscription, please email Derinda Blakeney.