

Net Vet Weekly - May 18, 2020

COVID-19 Update

The Veterinary Medical Hospital continues to see only emergency patients using curbside admission and discharge protocols.

Our clinicians remain available for phone consultations with primary veterinarians. Please call (405) 744-7000 for assistance.

COVID-19 related information can be viewed in detail on the College of Veterinary Medicine website at COVID-19 Updates.

Dr. Jordy Earns Gentle Doctor Award

Congratulations to Dr. Julia Jordy, class of 2020, on receiving the Gentle Doctor Award! Originally from Omaha, Nebraska, Jordy also received the American Animal Hospital Association Award for her proficiency in primary care and the Dr. Wendell H. Krull Prize for her interest in veterinary parasitology. Read the full story and hear from Dr. Jordy at Jordy Earns Gentle Doctor Award.

Overweight Horses and Ponies Needed

Drs. Lyndi Gilliam and Amy Lovett need overweight horses and ponies with cresty necks for a current research project.

Body condition score for participants needs to be at least 7.5/9 or an 'easy-keeper.' While a history of laminitis is acceptable, the horses/ponies need to be systemically healthy to participate in the study. For full details visit Overweight Study.

Summer Seminar Goes Virtual!

To keep faculty, staff and all attendees safe and healthy, the OSU/OVMA Summer Seminar on June 26 and 27 has moved completely online. RACE approval is pending.

Register before June 1 to take advantage of the early bird rate. For full details and to register, please visit OSU/OVMA Summer Seminar.

Note from the Editor

Online CE Available

In response to COVID-19 challenges, we are now offering online professional development for veterinarians and veterinary technicians.

Stay current and earn CE from the comfort of your home or office. Learn more about the courses available, the cost, and where to register at Online Professional Development.
