

Net Vet Weekly - July 20, 2020

Veterinary Hospital Re-Opens during COVID-19

The Veterinary Medical Hospital is now accepting appointments for non-emergency cases.

Curbside admission and discharge protocols, social distancing and proper PPE are still in place. Read more at Veterinary Hospital Expands Services.

All COVID-19 related information can be viewed in detail on the College of Veterinary Medicine website at COVID-19 Updates.

Getting to Know You

Alexandra (Zandy) Hoff, DVM, is a small animal rotating intern. Originally from Portland, Oregon, she earned her DVM degree from Oregon State University. Dr. Hoff's research

House Officer Seminar

Stacey Woods, DVM, will present "ADVIA Cytogram Interpretation" on Thursday, July 23, at 8 a.m. in Room 002C at the Veterinary Medical Hospital.

Dr. Woods is a clinical pathology resident mentored by Dr. Jim Meinkoth. The recorded lecture will be available on Moodle in the course VBSC 6710.

Getting to Know You

Imal Khelik, DVM, is an avian, exotics and zoological medicine intern. Originally from Aurora, Colorado, she earned her DVM degree from Iowa State University. Dr. Khelik's research interests include zoo medicine.

interests include anything involving surgery.

Zandy grew up showjumping horses. She spent four weeks in Bangalore, India, doing rotations at a vet school. In her spare time, she enjoys riding horses, hiking with her dog, backpacking, playing the piano, painting and reading.

Favorite Quote: "Impossible is not a fact. It's an opinion. Impossible is not a declaration. It's a dare. Impossible is potential. Impossible is temporary. Impossible is nothing."

Getting to Know You

Erin Koperna, BVetMed, is a small animal rotating intern. Originally from Middletown, Delaware, she earned her BVetMed degree from the Royal Veterinary College in London, United Kingdom. Dr. Koperna's research interests include small animal surgery.

Erin is a certified scuba diver and obsessed with Italian Greyhounds. In her spare time, she enjoys cuddling with her dog, reading, playing games and traveling.

Favorite Quote: "Happiness can be found in the darkest of times, if only one can remember to turn on the light." - J.K. Rowling

While in veterinary school, she volunteered at the Blank Park Zoo every weekend. She loves big cats and whales. Imal has nine siblings. In her spare time, she enjoys running, painting, and hanging with her cat, Captain Jack Sparrow. One day, she hopes to dive with Great White Sharks.

Favorite Quote: "Life can be understood backwards, but it must be lived forwards." - Soren Kierkegaard

Getting to Know You

Giselle Cino, DVM, Ph.D., DACVP, is an assistant professor and anatomic pathologist in the Department of Veterinary Pathobiology. Originally from Asuncion, Paraguay, she earned her DVM degree from the College of Veterinary Medicine, National University of Asuncion, Paraguay, in 2009.

In 2013, Dr. Cino completed a combined anatomic pathology residency/Ph.D. program at Kansas State University. In 2014, Cino became a diplomate of the American College of Veterinary Pathologists and in 2016, she earned her graduate degree also from KSU.

Her research interests focus on immunopathogenesis of food animal infectious diseases with emphasis in porcine species as well as emerging and transboundary animal diseases.

In her spare time, Giselle enjoys swimming, hiking, paddle boarding, mountain biking and traveling.

OSTATETV

*OSU College of Veterinary Medicine
308 McElroy Hall
Stillwater, OK 74078*

This email was sent by the OSU College of Veterinary Medicine through a partnership with the OSU Alumni Association. To change your Net Vet Weekly subscription, please email Derinda Blakeney.